

GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE R. S. PURA

REPORT

OF

ACHIEVEMENTS/ACTIVITIES

FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER, 2025

ACHIEVEMENTS/ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER, 2025

S.No	Date	Title of the Activity	Brief Description	Image
1	16.09.2025	GDC RS PURA ORGANIZES SYMPOSIUM ON LOCAL YOUTH ACTIONS FOR THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS AND BEYOND	The Red Ribbon Club of GDC RS Pura organized a symposium competition on Local youth actions for the sustainable development goals and beyond by J&amp;K AIDS Control Society (JKACS) under the patronage of worthy Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour. The event aimed to highlight and empower the role of youth in advancing the global agenda for sustainable development through grassroots innovation, awareness, and action. Participants shared their perspective thoughts about challenges like poverty, climate change, gender inequality. The Principal Incharge Dr. Neena Gupta addressed the gathering and emphasised that symposium is not just a competition but a platform to inspire collective action, create awareness, and spark local solutions to global challenge. The whole event was coordinated by Prof. Priya Darshni Convener Red Ribbon Club, Prof. Geetika Goswami, Prof. Bushra, Dr Savleen Kour and Dr. Kiran Lata.	 The image section contains three distinct visual elements. At the top is a photograph of a group of approximately ten women dressed in vibrant, multi-colored saris, standing together in a well-lit hall with large windows. Below this is another photograph showing a group of women, some in white traditional attire and others in colorful saris, arranged in two rows, some seated and some standing. At the bottom is a newspaper clipping. The clipping features a headline: "GDC RS Pura organizes symposium on 'Local Youth Actions for Sustainable Development Goals and Beyond'". Below the headline is a small version of the group photo seen in the middle image. To the left of the photo is a "Top News Report" section, and to the right is a column of text providing details about the event, including the names of the organizers and the principal in charge.

2	17.09.2025	GDC RS PURA HOSTS QUIZ COMPETITION ON THE TEACHINGS AND PHILOSOPHY OF MAHATMA GANDHI	The Literary Committee of the College under the convenorship of Prof. Neena Gupta organized an enlightening Quiz Competition focusing on the life, teachings, and philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi. The event aimed to instill Gandhian values of truth, non-violence, simplicity, and moral courage among students while encouraging them to learn about India's rich legacy of freedom and social reform. The principal of the college, Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour appreciated the initiative and emphasized the importance of imbibing Gandhian ideals in contemporary times. This quiz competition served as a meaningful step toward inspiring the younger generation to follow the timeless ideals of Mahatma Gandhi and contribute to building a just and compassionate society. Students from various departments participated enthusiastically, answering questions related to Gandhi's early life, role in the freedom struggle, principles of Satyagraha, and his enduring contributions to peace and human rights. The competition featured multiple engaging rounds that tested both the depth and breadth of participants' knowledge. The team comprising of Rajat Motta and Ayushi of Semester 1st was declared winners.	 GDC RS Pura hosts quiz competition on teachings and philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi  Top News Report    In G PURA, Sep 17    The Literary Committee of the College under the convenorship of Prof. Neena Gupta organized an enlightening Quiz Competition focusing on the life, teachings, and philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi. The event aimed to instill Gandhian values of truth, non-violence, simplicity, and moral courage among students while encouraging them to learn about India's rich legacy of freedom and social reform. The principal of the college, Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour appreciated the initiative and emphasized the importance of imbibing Gandhian ideals in contemporary times. This quiz competition served as a meaningful step toward inspiring the younger generation to follow the timeless ideals of Mahatma Gandhi and contribute to building a just and compassionate society. Students from various departments participated enthusiastically, answering questions related to Gandhi's early life, role in the freedom struggle, principles of Satyagraha, and his enduring contributions to peace and human rights. The competition featured multiple engaging rounds that tested both the depth and breadth of participants' knowledge. The team comprising of Rajat Motta and Ayushi of Semester 1st was declared winners.
3	17.09.2025	GDC RS PURA PARTICIPATED IN THE PAINTING COMPETITION	Volunteers of the NSS unit of GDC RS Pura participated in the Painting Competition under # Viksit Bharat ke Rang Kala ke Sang# organised by IGNC for Arts, Regional Centre and Divisional Administration Jammu at Convention Centre Jammu

4	18.09.2025	GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE RS PURA ORGANIZED AWARENESS WORKSHOP ON FIR: EMPOWERING YOUTH WITH LEGAL KNOWLEDGE	Under the patronage of worthy Principal Prof Dr. Preetpal Kour, POSH committee of Government Degree College RS Pura organized awareness workshop on FIR Empowering youth with legal knowledge on 18th September 2025. The resource person of the event was Advocate Kiran Thakur. She is legal consultant and founder director Navreedhi Welfare Foundation. She said that today's youth are constantly facing new opportunities, challenges, and responsibilities. Whether it's navigating educational institution, entering the workforce, or engaging with the world through social media, understanding the law is crucial for their personal development and futuristic goals. Legal knowledge provides the foundation for making informed decisions, protecting rights, and fostering a sense of responsibility. She also highlighted the importance of filing FIR. The First Information Report (FIR) is a crucial step in the criminal justice process in India, marking the commencement of an official investigation. FIRs enable the police to record cognizable offenses and ensure timely action for serious crimes. The worthy Principal Prof Dr. Preetpal Kour expressed her gratitude towards the resource person. She said that low legal awareness makes youth vulnerable, but such workshops can improve knowledge, empower youth to advocate for themselves and their communities, and foster a more just society . The program was coordinated by Prof Radhika Mahajan Convener POSH Committee.	  GDC RS Pura organizes awareness workshop  N.S. NEWS SERVICE JAMMU, Sep 18: Under the patronage of worthy Principal Prof Dr. Preetpal Kour, POSH committee of Government Degree College RS Pura organized awareness workshop on FIR Empowering youth with legal knowledge on 18th September 2025. The resource person of the event was Advocate Kiran Thakur. She is legal consultant &amp; founder director Navreedhi Welfare Foundation. She said that today's youth are constantly facing new opportunities, challenges, and responsibilities. Whether it's navigating educational institution, entering the workforce, or engaging with the world through social media, understanding the law is crucial for their personal development &amp; futuristic goals. Legal knowledge provides the foundation for making informed decisions, protecting rights, and fostering a sense of responsibility. She also highlighted the importance of filing FIR. The First Information Report (FIR) is a crucial step in the criminal justice process in India, marking the commencement of an official investigation. FIRs enable the police to record cognizable offenses and ensure timely action for serious crimes. The worthy Principal Prof Dr. Preetpal Kour expressed her gratitude towards the resource person. She said that low legal awareness makes youth vulnerable, but such workshops can improve knowledge, empower youth to advocate for themselves and their communities, and foster a more just society. The program was coordinated by Prof Radhika Mahajan Convener POSH Committee. The welcome address was given by Prof Vijeta Anand and vote of thanks was presented by Dr. Shikha Manchanda. The workshop was attended by students and staff of the college.
5	18.09.2025	GDC R.S. PURA ORGANIZES DONATION DRIVE UNDER SEWA PAKHWADA	As part of the ongoing Sewa Pakhwada celebrations, the NSS and NCC Units of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura successfully organized a Donation Drive aimed at promoting the spirit of service and social responsibility among students and college fraternity.

			The drive witnessed enthusiastic participation from faculty, students, and staff members who came forward to donate essential items including clothes, books, Stationary and hygiene kits. Speaking on the occasion, the Principal of the college, Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, appreciated the efforts of the NSS Volunteers and NCC cadets and highlighted the importance of such initiatives in shaping responsible citizens. The event was coordinated under the guidance of NSS Programme Officer Prof Lokesha Dabgotra, who lauded the overwhelming support received for the noble cause. This initiative is part of a series of events being organized under Sewa Pakhwada, a nationwide campaign to celebrate selfless service and social outreach, in line with the vision of a caring and inclusive society.
6	19.09.2025	GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE, R.S. PURA ORGANIZED A INTRA COLLEGE DECLAMATION CONTEST ON GANDHI JAYANTI	As a part of series of events to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti, Literary Committee of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura organized an Intra College Declamation contest on the topic “TRUTH AND NON VIOLENCE - RELEVANCE OF GANDHIAN PHILOSOPHY IN CONTEMPORARY TIMES” under the worthy patronage of Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour and supervision of Dr. Neena Gupta Rohmetra, convener Literary Committee. More than 15 students participated in this competition with full zeal and enthusiasm. The students reflected on Gandhi’s philosophy, centered around truth and non-violence not just a political strategy but a moral and spiritual approach to life. Even decades after his death, the relevance of his ideals continues to resonate in a world plagued by conflict, injustice, and moral ambiguity .The Judges of the competition were Dr. Neeru Sawhney and Prof.

			Sudesh Kumar. The Judgement was done on the basis of content, relevance and presentation. The worthy Principal shared her thoughts with the students in contemporary times, where violence both physical and psychological has become alarmingly commonplace. Educational institutions are increasingly focusing on character building, moral education, and value-based learning, all of which align with Gandhian philosophy. Promoting tolerance, honesty, and non-violent behavior in students lays the foundation for a more just and peaceful society. The first, second and third prize was awarded to Ayushi of Semester 1st, Mridul and Ayush of semester 3rd, and Harshdeep Singh of semester 5th respectively.	 GDC R S Pura organizes Intra College declamation contest EARLYTIMES REPORT R S PURA, Sept 18: As a part of series of events to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti, Literary Committee of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura organized an Intra College Declamation contest on the topic "TRUTH AND NON VIOLENCE - RELEVANCE OF GANDHIAN PHILOSOPHY IN CONTEMPORARY TIMES" under the worthy patronage of Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour and supervision of Dr. Neeta Gupta Sharma, convener Literary Committee. More than 11 students participated in this competition with full zeal and enthusiasm. The students reflected on Gandhi's philosophy, centered around truth and non violence not just a political strategy but a moral and spiritual approach to life. Even decades after his death, the relevance of his ideals continues to resonate in a world plagued by conflict, injustice, and social anarchy. The Judges of the competition were Dr. Neeta Gupta Sharma and Prof. Sudesh Kumar. The Judgement was done on the basis of content, relevance and presentation. The worthy Principal shared her thoughts with the students in contemporary times, where violence both physical and psychological has become alarmingly commonplace. Educational institutions are increasingly focusing on character building, moral education, and value-based learning, all of which align with Gandhian philosophy. Promoting tolerance, honesty, and non-violent behavior in students lays the foundation for a more just and peaceful society. The first, second and third prize was awarded to Ayushi of Semester 1st, Mridul and Ayush of semester 3rd, and Harshdeep Singh of semester 5th respectively.
7	19.09.2025	GDC R. S. PURA ORGANISES ADULT LITERACY PROGRAM UNDER SEWA PARV	The NSS, NCC Unit, Eco Club, Viksit Bharat Yuva connect Program and Academic excellence committee of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura, jointly organized an Adult Literacy Program under the aegis of IQAC as part of the ongoing Sewa Parv celebrations. The initiative aimed to promote education and empower the local adult population with basic reading and writing skills, in line with the spirit of community service and nation-building. The program witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members, who volunteered to teach adult learners from nearby communities. The focus was on functional literacy — enabling adults to read, write, and perform basic arithmetic—thereby fostering greater self-reliance and confidence among participants. Inaugurating the program, Principal of the College Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour emphasized the role of education as a tool for empowerment and societal progress. “Literacy is the foundation for sustainable development. Through such

			initiatives, we not only serve the community but also instill a sense of responsibility and compassion in our students,” she stated. The event was coordinated by Prof. Lukesha Dubgotra, NSS PO. She impart knowledge regarding the importance of teaching and guidance to uplift their life style and daily habits. The teaching sessions organized by convener Eco club, Dr. Sudesh Kumar regarding environment awareness were designed to be interactive, inclusive, and tailored to the needs of adult learners. The Program received a positive response from both learners and volunteers, highlighting the importance of inclusive education in driving social change.	 GDC RS Pura organises adult literacy program under Sewa Parv Top News Report R S PURA, Sep 19: The NSS, NCC Unit, Eco Club, West Bharat Yasa connect Program and Academic excellence committees of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura, jointly organized an Adult Literacy Program under the aegis of IQAC as part of the ongoing Sewa Parv celebrations. The initiative aimed to promote education and empower the local adult population with basic reading and writing skills, in line with the spirit of community service and nation-building. The program witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members, who volunteered to teach adult learners from nearby communities. The focus was on functional literacy – enabling adult to read, write, and perform basic arithmetic – thereby fostering greater self-reliance and confidence among participants. Inaugurating the program, Principal of the College Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour emphasized the role of education as a tool for empowerment and societal progress. “Literacy is the foundation for sustainable development. Through such initiatives, we not only serve the community but also instill a sense of responsibility and compassion in our students,” she stated. The event was coordinated by Prof. Lukesha Dubgotra, NSS PO. She impart knowledge regarding the importance of teaching and guidance to uplift their life style and daily habits. The teaching sessions organized by convener Eco club, Dr. Sudesh Kumar regarding environment awareness were designed to be interactive, inclusive, and tailored to the needs of adult learners. The Program received a positive response from both learners and volunteers, highlighting the importance of inclusive education in driving social change. The faculties members present during the occasion were Dr. Anil Pantar, Dr. Hari Singh, Prof. Sanku Goswami, Dr. Renu Sharma, Dr. Sunil Kumar Mangooch, Dr. Sarveen Kour and Dr. Kiran Lata. The formal vote of thanks was presented by Prof. Vijeta Anand, HOD Pol. Science.
8	20.09.2025	GDC RS PURA ORGANIZES AN ON-THE-SPOT PAINTING COMPETITION	The Cultural Committee of the College under the convenorship of Dr. Jasmeet Kour, HOD Music successfully organized an On-the-Spot Painting Competition to commemorate India’s historic freedom struggle, focusing on the inspiring themes of the Dandi March (1930) and the Quit India Movement (1942). The event was held with the objective of fostering awareness among students about the nation’s glorious past and encouraging them to creatively express the sacrifices and resilience of India’s freedom fighters. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, who showcased their artistic talents while highlighting the values of courage, unity, and determination embodied in these two landmark movements. Through vivid colors and creative depictions, the participants brought alive the spirit of Mahatma Gandhi’s leadership in the Dandi March and the mass awakening of Indians during the Quit India Movement. The Principal of the college, (Prof.) Dr. Preetpal Kour appreciated the originality, creativity, and historical relevance reflected in the	  GDC RS Pura organizes painting competition Top News Report R S PURA, Sep 20: The Cultural Committee of the College under the convenorship of Dr. Jasmeet Kour, HOD Music successfully organized an On-the-Spot Painting Competition to commemorate India’s historic freedom struggle, focusing on the inspiring themes of the Dandi March (1930) and the Quit India Movement (1942). The event was held with the objective of fostering awareness among students about the nation’s glorious past and encouraging them to creatively express the sacrifices and resilience of India’s freedom fighters. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, who showcased their artistic talents while highlighting the values of courage, unity, and determination embodied in these two landmark movements. Through vivid colors and creative depictions, the participants brought alive the spirit of Mahatma Gandhi’s leadership in the Dandi March and the mass awakening of Indians during the Quit India Movement. The Principal of the College, (Prof.) Dr. Preetpal Kour appreciated the originality, creativity, and historical relevance reflected in the paintings she also remarked that the event not only provided a platform for students to demonstrate their artistic skills but also served as a meaningful tribute to India’s freedom struggle, instilling a sense of pride and patriotism among all present. Superior of excellence list was declared as the winner, while Manoj Kumar and Sunil Dabstoo 2nd and 3rd respectively. Dr. Harpreet Singh and Dr. Anurag Pandey adjudged the event. Dr. Neel Chohan, Dr. Shashi, Dr. Sarveen Kour, Dr. Kiran Lata also graced the occasion. Dr. Jasmeet Kour, Convenor Cultural Committee extended her gratitude to all participants, organizers and dignitaries whose efforts ensured the success of the event.

			paintings she also remarked that the event not only provided a platform for students to demonstrate their artistic skills but also served as a meaningful tribute to India's freedom struggle, instilling a sense of pride and patriotism among all present. Rupinder of semester 1st was declared as the winner while Manish Kumar and Sonali Chib stood 2nd and 3rd respectively.	 GDC RS Pura organizes on the spot painting competition JAMMU, Sep 20: The Cultural Committee of the College under the supervision of Dr. Jyoti Chib organized an On-the-spot Painting Competition to commemorate India's 75th Independence Day. The event was held with the objective of instilling a sense of patriotism among students and showcasing their artistic skills. The competition was held in the school hall and was presided over by Dr. Jyoti Chib. The participants brought their own canvases and paints. The event was held in the school hall and was presided over by Dr. Jyoti Chib. The participants brought their own canvases and paints. The event was held in the school hall and was presided over by Dr. Jyoti Chib.
9	20.09.2025	GDC R. S. PURA ORGANISES AWARENESS LECTURE ON CYBER SECURITY	The NSS unit in collaboration with Eco club of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura successfully organized an Awareness Lecture on Cyber Security as part of its ongoing efforts to educate students and staff about the growing challenges and threats in the digital world. The event aimed to sensitize the college community about safe internet practices, online privacy, cyber hygiene, and methods to protect themselves from cybercrimes such as phishing, identity theft, and hacking. The lecture was attended by faculty members, students, and administrative staff who engaged enthusiastically throughout the session. The session was inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, Principal of GDC R.S. Pura, who highlighted the importance of cyber security in today's digitally driven world. In her address, she emphasized the urgent need for awareness, especially among youth, who are most vulnerable to online threats. The keynote speaker, Prof. Shelly Kalsi, Assistant Professor in Computer Application delivered an insightful presentation on the latest cyber threats, government initiatives on cyber safety, and practical tips for staying safe online. She also shared real-life examples of cybercrime cases and how they were tackled, making the session highly informative and relatable.	 GDC RS Pura organises awareness lecture on cyber security Top News Report JAMMU, Sep 20: The NSS unit in collaboration with Eco club of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura organized an Awareness Lecture on Cyber Security as part of its ongoing efforts to educate students and staff about the growing challenges and threats in the digital world. The event aimed to sensitize the college community about safe internet practices, online privacy, cyber hygiene, and methods to protect themselves from cybercrimes such as phishing, identity theft, and hacking. The lecture was attended by faculty members, students, and administrative staff who engaged enthusiastically throughout the session. The session was inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, Principal of GDC R.S. Pura, who highlighted the importance of cyber security in today's digitally driven world. In her address, she emphasized the urgent need for awareness, especially among youth, who are most vulnerable to online threats. The keynote speaker, Prof. Shelly Kalsi, Assistant Professor in Computer Application delivered an insightful presentation on the latest cyber threats, government initiatives on cyber safety, and practical tips for staying safe online. She also shared real-life examples of cybercrime cases and how they were tackled, making the session highly informative and relatable.

10	20.09.2025	GDC R. S. PURA CONDUCTS DOCUMENTARY SHOW ON GANDHIAN PHILOSOPHY	The NSS Unit, Eco-Club, Viksit Bharat Yuva connect Committee and Academic Excellence of Government Degree College , R.S. Pura, jointly organized a documentary screening on Gandhian Philosophy to enlighten students about the enduring relevance of Mahatma Gandhi's ideals in contemporary society. The event was held as part of the college's ongoing initiatives to promote value-based education and instill moral and ethical awareness among students. The documentary focused on the life, principles, and movements led by Mahatma Gandhi, emphasizing core Gandhian values such as non-violence, truth, simplicity, and self-reliance. The program began with an opening address by (Prof.) Dr. Preetpal Kour, Principal of the college, who highlighted the importance of revisiting Gandhian thought in today's fast-changing world. She stressed how the principles of peace and non-violence are more relevant now than ever before.
11	22.09.2025	GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE, R.S. PURA, ORGANIZES PLANTATION DRIVE TO PROMOTE ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS	Government Degree College, R.S. Pura, organized a Plantation Drive in the college campus as part of its ongoing initiatives to promote environmental awareness and sustainable living. The initiative was conducted under the banner of Department of Environmental sciences, Eco Club, Campus Beautification Committee and NSS, with the active participation of faculty members, staff, and students. The drive aimed to instill environmental consciousness among the youth and encourage them to take responsibility in combating climate change, conserving biodiversity, and promoting sustainable development. On this occasion, more than 50 saplings of shade-giving, ornamental, and fruit-bearing trees like Madhu Kamini, Chandni, Willow, Amla, Chinar were planted. Speaking on the occasion, the Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal

			Kour, Principal of the College, emphasized the significance of trees in maintaining ecological balance and improving the quality of life. She urged the students to nurture the saplings and make plantation drives a continuous movement rather than a one-time activity.
12	22.09.2025	GDC R.S. PURA ORGANISES VISIT TO ORPHANAGE UNDER SEWA PARV INITIATIVE	The NSS unit in collaboration with IQAC and Academic Excellence Committee of Government Degree College R.S. Pura organized a compassionate visit to an orphanage located near Ved Mandir, Amphalla, Jammu under the banner of Viksit Bharat Yuva connect Program. The initiative aimed to instill a spirit of empathy, service, and social awareness among students while extending care and kindness to the children at the orphanage. Faculty members and NSS volunteers, actively participated in the visit, engaging in interactive sessions and donated essential items including food items and stationery items to the students of Bal Ashram. Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, Principal of GDC R.S. Pura, lauded the efforts of the organizing team and highlighted the importance of such activities in nurturing responsible citizens. "Education is not only about academic growth but also about cultivating values of compassion, empathy, and service," she said. The whole event was coordinated by Prof. Lukesha Dubgotra, NSS PO and Prof. Rajinder Singh. The children at the orphanage were visibly delighted by the interaction and the event concluded with fun-filled activities led by the NSS volunteers of the college.

13	22.09.2025	GDC RS PURA ALSO DONATED MEDICAL KITS INCLUDING VARIOUS ITEMS TO VICTIMS OF FLOOD UNDER FLOOD RELIEF PACKAGE AT GOVT. COLLEGE FOR WOMEN PARADE	All the above mentioned activities were possible only because of the guidance and support of our worthy Principal Mam and all the staff members of our college whether teaching or non-teaching, each one of us contributed in this noble cause.
14	23.09.2025	GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE, R.S. PURA STUDENTS CONDUCTS COMMUNITY CLEANLINESS DRIVE	The students and NSS volunteers of Government Degree College, R.S. PURA, under patronage of the Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, undertook a proactive step toward promoting environmental awareness and civic responsibility by organizing a cleanliness drive in their local neighbourhood. The initiative as part of the ongoing Sewa Parv celebrations. focused on enhancing hygiene, proper waste management, and encouraging community participation in keeping the neighbourhood clean. The event was coordinated by Dr. Akrity Parihar (Convener, Campus cleanliness committee) and Prof. Lukesha Dubgotra (NSS PO). The drive saw active participation of students who participated enthusiastically, cleaning streets, public spaces, and nearby parks. Special attention was given to waste segregation, litter removal, and educating the community on sustainable waste disposal practices. This cleanliness drive under Sewa Parv marks a step toward nurturing responsible citizens who actively contribute to the well-being of society and the environment.

15	24.09.2025	G D C R.S. PURA ORGANIZED A BOOK REVIEW ON “MY EXPERIMENTS WITH TRUTH” AS A PART OF GANDHI JAYANTI CELEBRATION	As a part of series of events to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti, Literary Committee of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura organized a book review “My Experiments with Truth” under the worthy patronage of Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour and supervision of Dr. Neena Gupta Rohmetra, convener of the Literary Committee. More than 30 students participated in this activity with full zeal and enthusiasm. In a thought-provoking and reflective session, students delved deep into Mahatma Gandhi’s timeless autobiography, “The Story of My Experiments with Truth,” examining its core values, historical context, and continuing relevance in today’s world. While addressing the students worthy Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour emphasised that Gandhi’s autobiography is not merely a historical account, but a moral compass that speaks to every individual. His life reminds us that personal transformation is the foundation of societal change. The session concluded with a discussion on how Gandhi’s introspective style of leadership contrasts with today’s fast-paced political narratives, and how youth can draw inspiration from his principles in addressing modern challenges.
16	24.09.2025	NSS UNIT GDC RS PURA VISITED CHOHALA VILLAGE TO CELEBRATE NSS FOUNDATION DAY WITH PLANTATION DRIVE AND AWARENESS LECTURE ON NASHA MUKT ABHYAAN UNDER SEWA PAKHWADA	The NSS, NCC Unit, Eco Club, and Academic excellence committee of GDC, R.S. Pura, jointly organized an Awareness Lecture on Nasha Mukta Abhyaan and Plantation drive near Chohalla village of RS Pura to celebrate NSS Foundation day under the aegis of IQAC as part of the ongoing Sewa Parv celebrations of Viksit Bharat Yuva connect Program. The campaign aims to raise awareness about the harmful effects of drug and substance abuse and to promote a culture of health, responsibility, and resilience among students and community members. While addressing the students and community

			members, worthy Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour emphasised that the importance of Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyan, initiated by the Government of India, aims to spread awareness, prevent addiction, and provide support to those in need. And as an educational institution, we have a critical role to play in shaping the future of our young generation. It is about making real, conscious choices every day that help to stay focused, healthy, and reach full potential. The Plantation drive was aimed to instill environmental consciousness among the youth and encourage them to take responsibility in combating climate change, conserving biodiversity, and promoting sustainable development. On this occasion, more than 25 students participated enthusiastically and planted different medicinal and ornamental plants.
17	25.09.2025	GDC R. S. PURA ORGANIZES AWARENESS LECTURE ON DRUG ABUSE AND ROAD SAFETY	To spread awareness among the youth about the rising menace of drug abuse, Drug De-addiction Committee in collaboration with Road Safety Club of Government Degree College R. S. Pura organized an impactful Awareness Lecture today, featuring S. Gurmeet Singh, Sub-Divisional Police Officer (SDPO) R. S. Pura, as the keynote speaker. The event was witnessed active participation from students, faculty members, and local stakeholders. Principal of GDC R. S. Pura, Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, formally welcomed the chief guest and emphasized the urgent need to educate youth on the consequences of substance abuse. In his address, SDPO S. Gurmeet Singh delivered an insightful and interactive lecture, highlighting the psychological, social, and legal ramifications of drug addiction and Road safety acts. He urged students to remain vigilant, informed, and to act as ambassadors of a drug-free society. The SDPO also shared real-life examples from the field, which left a deep impact

			on the audience. He encouraged students to report any suspicious activities and offered assurance of police support in safeguarding their future.
18	25.09.2025	GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE R.S. PURA, ORGANIZES CLEANLINESS DRIVE AND RALLY UNDER SEWA PARV	In continuation of its commitment to Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and in observance of Seva Parv, Campus cleanliness committee, Eco-Club, NSS, NCC in collaboration with Department of Environmental Sciences of Government Degree College R.S. PURA organized a comprehensive Cleanliness Drive in the college premises. The students and staff actively participated in a cleanliness drive, focusing on classrooms, corridors, and the college premises. The activity encouraged collective responsibility and motivated participants to adopt cleanliness as a lifelong practice. The initiative instilled a sense of responsibility and ownership among students towards maintaining their surroundings. As part of the initiative, a tree plantation ceremony was held in the college premises, in which the SDPO RS Pura, S. Gurmeet Singh planted a sapling, symbolizing the commitment towards a greener and healthier environment. The officer appreciated the efforts of the college and motivated students to contribute actively in building a clean and sustainable society. Principal of the college, Dr. Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, appreciated the efforts of students and faculty members for their enthusiastic participation. She highlighted that such activities not only promote awareness but also nurture the values of discipline, responsibility, and collective action. The program concluded with a Cleanliness Awareness Rally, where students carried posters and placards with

			motivational slogans emphasizing cleanliness, hygiene, and civic responsibility.
19	26.09.2025	BOOT CAMP ON “VIKSIT KRISHI FOR ATMANIRBHAR BHARAT” ORGANISED AT GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE, R.S. PURA	R.S. Pura, 26th September 2025 — The Career Counselling Cell of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura, in collaboration with SKUAST-Jammu, organized a one-day Boot Camp under the initiative “Viksit Krishi for Atmanirbhar Bharat” on 26th September 2025 at the college campus. The Boot Camp focused on the emerging themes of Digital Agriculture and Smart Farming, Climate Resilient Agriculture and Animal Husbandry, Food Processing, Market Strategy, and Urban Farming. The primary objective of the programme was to inspire students to develop innovative business ideas, promote entrepreneurship, and encourage them to become job providers rather than job seekers. The event also provided insights into the role of Ideathons, Boot Camps, and incubation training in nurturing startups. Detailed information was shared about government-supported schemes such as RKVY-RAFTAAR and other initiatives aimed at promoting agriculture based entrepreneurship. The programme was conducted under the esteemed guidance of Prof. Dr. Preetpal Kour, Principal, GDC R.S. Pura, who addressed and encouraged the students to actively engage in such initiatives that contribute to nation-building and self-reliance. The resource persons for the Boot Camp were Dr. Anil Bhat, Associate Director Research, SKUAST-Jammu and Co-Principal Investigator of the JKCIP Project, and Mr. Sahil Gupta, Manager, Incubation, JKCIP Project, SKUAST-Jammu.	 Boot Camp on “Viksit Krishi for Atmanirbhar Bharat” Organized at GDC R.S. Pura  Top News Report R.S. PURA, Sep 26: The Career Counselling Cell of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura, in collaboration with SKUAST-Jammu, organized a one-day Boot Camp under the initiative “Viksit Krishi for Atmanirbhar Bharat” on the college campus today. The Boot Camp focused on key themes including Digital Agriculture and Smart Farming, Climate Resilient Agriculture and Animal Husbandry, Food Processing, Market Strategy, and Urban Farming. The primary aim was to inspire students to design innovative business models, foster entrepreneurship, and motivate them to become job creators rather than job seekers. Participants also gained insights into the significance of Ideathons, Boot Camps, and incubation training in nurturing startups. Detailed information was provided about government-supported schemes such as RKVY-RAFTAAR and other initiatives promoting agriculture-based entrepreneurship. The programme was conducted under the esteemed guidance of Prof. Dr. Preetpal Kour, Principal, GDC R.S. Pura, who encouraged students to actively participate in such initiatives contributing to nation-building and self-reliance. The resource persons were Dr. Anil Bhat, Associate Director Research, SKUAST-Jammu &amp; Co-Principal Investigator of the JKCIP Project, and Mr. Sahil Gupta, Manager, Incubation, JKCIP Project, SKUAST-Jammu. They conducted two highly interactive sessions, engaging students in activities designed to spark innovation and entrepreneurial thinking. The event began with a welcome address by Dr. Shivan Manchanda and concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Niveda Saahney, Convener, Career Counselling Cell. Among the dignitaries present were Dr. Rajender Sharma, Dr. Anupama Pandotra, Dr. Kiran Pathania, Prof. Anja Hariani, Prof. Shaily Kaur, Prof. Meethu Pandita, and Prof. Seelika Goswami. The Boot Camp successfully encouraged students to explore new pathways of self-reliance and innovative agriculture, in line with the vision of Atmanirbhar Bharat. NCC Unit of GGM Sc of ‘Clean and Green’ Top News Report JAMMU, Sep 26: As part of the ongoing Swachh Panchayat, the NCC Unit of GGM Science College, Jammu, organized a special lecture on the theme ‘Clean and Green Awareness’ to sensitize students about their vital role in environmental conservation. The event was held under the guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Ramesh Kumar Gupta, Principal of the College, a strong advocate of environmental protection and community service. Addressing the students, Dr. Devanshi Sharma stressed the need to maintain daily surroundings, sustainable practices, and proper waste disposal. He emphasized that the youth, especially students, play a pivotal role in shaping a cleaner and greener environment through their habits, proper waste disposal, and community service.

20	26.09.2025	DISTRICT LEVEL DECLAMATION COMPETITION AT GCW, PARADE GROUND, JAMMU	Ayushi , a student from GDC RS Pura won first prize in District Level Declamation competition organised by Office of the Principal GCW Parade Ground, Jammu
21	27.09.2025	GDC RS PURA ORGANIZED INTRA-MURAL GATKA COMPETITION	Intra-Mural Gatka Competition Organized at GDC RS Pura, the Department of Physical Education of GDC R S Pura successfully conducted an Intra-Mural Gatka Competition in the college premises, aimed at reviving traditional martial arts and fostering cultural values among students. The programme was inaugurated by Prof (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, Principal of the college, who encouraged students to actively participate in indigenous sports. In his address, he highlighted that Gatka, apart from being a self-defence technique, strengthens courage, discipline, and teamwork. The competition witnessed energetic participation and skillful performances by students, who displayed agility, precision, and sportsmanship. Winners were awarded medals while all participants were applauded for their dedication. Simran Preet Kour, Sem 1 stood runner-up and Khushpreet Kour of Sem 1 was winner in women's category and in Men category Sarabjeet Singh, Sem 1 stood runner-up and Gurutej Singh of Sem 3 was the winner. The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Roopali Slathia Physical Director, who expressed gratitude to the Principal, staff, and volunteers for their support.

GDC R.S. PURA ORGANIZED AN AWARENESS WORKSHOP ON GYNAECOLOGY AWARENESS AND STRESS MANAGEMENT

The Medical and First Aid committee, Women Development Cell and NSS Unit of GDC, R.S. Pura, jointly organized an Awareness workshop on Gynaecology Awareness and Stress Management under the worthy patronage of Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour and supervision of Dr. Radhika Mahajan, Convener, Women Development Cell, Dr. Renu Sharma, Convener, First Aid Committee and Prof. Lokesh, Convener, NSS. The Resource person for today's workshop was Dr. Himani Bhutyal, Medical Officer AYUSH J&K. The workshop was attended by teaching, non-teaching staff and female students of the college. The empowering workshop shed light on critical aspects of women's reproductive health, Importance of regular screenings and early detection, Effects of stress on reproductive health, Practical techniques for stress reduction and self-care. She also demonstrated various activities for stress management and meditation purposes. While addressing the gathering, the worthy principal emphasized that mental well-being is just as important as physical health. It is an opportunity for all of us to pause, reflect, and learn effective techniques to cope with the pressures of life more productively. We must also learn to celebrate self-care, emotional resilience, and the courage to seek help when needed. Managing stress is not a sign of weakness, it is a sign of wisdom. The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Renu Sharma and committee members. The event was concluded with formal vote of thanks by Prof. Lukesh Dubgotra, NSS PO.

GDC RS Pura organizes awareness workshop on gynaecology awareness and stress management

J.L. NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Sep 27: The Medical and First Aid committee, Women Development Cell and NSS Unit of GDC, R.S. Pura, jointly organized an Awareness workshop on Gynaecology Awareness and Stress Management under the worthy patronage of Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour and supervision of Dr. Radhika Mahajan, Convener, Women Development Cell, Dr. Renu Sharma, Convener, First Aid Committee and Prof. Lokesh, Convener, NSS. The Resource person for today's workshop was Dr. Himani Bhutyal, Medical Officer AYUSH J&K. The workshop was attended by teaching, non-teaching staff and female students of the college. The empowering workshop shed light on critical aspects of women's reproductive health, Importance of regular screenings and early detection, Effects of stress on reproductive health, Practical techniques for stress reduction and self-care. She also demonstrated various activities for stress management and meditation purposes. While addressing the gathering, the worthy principal emphasized that mental well-being is just as important as physical health. It is an opportunity for all of us to pause, reflect, and learn effective techniques to cope with the pressures of life more productively.

9 cond loaded Tractor trollave seized

23	27.09.2025	GDC R.S. PURA CELEBRATE 'HINDI DIWAS' THE DEPARTMENT OF HINDI	To Celebrate 'Hindi Diwas' the Department of Hindi of Govt. Degree College R.S. Pura organized an Essay Writing Completion and a quiz Completion students from semester I, III &amp; V actively participated in the events. In essay completion Rasdeep Kour, Shivani and Sonia Devi stood 1st, 2nd &amp; 3rd respectively. In Quiz Competition team 'B' stood first, team 'A' stood second &amp; Team 'C' stood third. Principal of the college Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour addresses the students and stressed on the importance of Hindi Language and its Lude usage. She said Hindi worldwide. The whole event was organized and Co-coordinated by Head of Hindi Department, Dr. Raj Jamwal. Faculty Members present during the event were Dr. Anupama Pandotra, Prof. Priya Darshni, Dr. Kiran Pathania, Prof. Harpreet Kour, Dr. Sunil Kumar, Dr. Rajinder Singh and Dr. Savleen Kour.	  Top News Report  R.S. PURA, Sep 27: To mark the celebration of Hindi Diwas, the Department of Hindi at Government Degree College R.S. Pura organized an Essay Writing Competition and a Quiz Competition for students from Semesters I, III, and V. The events aimed to promote the use of Hindi and instill a deeper appreciation of the national language among students. In the essay competition, Rasdeep Kour, Shivani, and Sonia Devi secured the first, second, and third positions respectively. In the quiz competition, Team B emerged first, Team A stood second, and Team C secured third place, showcasing impressive knowledge and enthusiasm. Addressing the students, Prof. Dr. Preetpal Kour, Principal of the College, highlighted the importance of the Hindi language and its widespread relevance. She emphasized the need for its proper usage in both academic and daily life, noting Hindi's growing prominence worldwide. The events were organized and coordinated by Dr. Raj Jamwal, Head of the Hindi Department, with active support from faculty members including Dr. Anupama Pandotra, Prof. Priya Darshni, Dr. Kiran Pathania, Prof. Harpreet Kour, Dr. Sunil Kumar, Dr. Rajinder Singh, and Dr. Savleen Kour. The celebration successfully combined learning, competition, and cultural appreciation, engaging students in meaningful participation.
24	27.09.2025	GDC R.S. PURA ORGANIZED AN AWARENESS LECTURE ON ETHICAL AND MORAL TEACHING: HONORING GRANDPARENTS AND PROMOTING FAMILY CARE	The NSS Unit and Academic Excellence Committee of GDC, R.S. Pura, jointly organized an Awareness Lecture on Ethical and Moral Teaching: Honoring Grandparents and Promoting Family Care in a heartfelt initiative aimed at fostering respect and compassion for the elderly under the aegis of IQAC as part of the ongoing Sewa Parv celebrations of Viksit Bharat Yuva connect Program. The lecture was delivered by Prof. Luksha Dubgotra which focused on the importance of imparting ethical and moral teachings to students, emphasizing the invaluable role grandparents play in our lives. It aims to inspire younger generations to cherish their relationships with their elders and discourage the notion of old age homes as a first resort. More than 30 students participated in this activity with great zeal and enthusiasm. While addressing the students and faculty	  Top News Report  R.S. PURA, Sep 27: The NSS Unit and Academic Excellence Committee of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura, jointly organized an Awareness Lecture on Ethical and Moral Teaching: Honoring Grandparents and Promoting Family Care. The initiative, organized under the aegis of IQAC as part of the ongoing Sewa Parv celebrations of the Viksit Bharat Yuva Connect Program, aimed to foster respect, compassion, and care for the elderly. The lecture was delivered by Prof. Luksha Dubgotra, who highlighted the importance of instilling ethical and moral values among students. The session focused on the invaluable role grandparents play in honoring, guiding, and shaping the character of younger generations. It encouraged students to cherish relationships with their elders and to view old age homes as a last resort, promoting family care and intergenerational bonding. More than 30 students actively participated in the event with enthusiasm, engaging with the discussions and sharing their perspectives on family values and ethical responsibilities. While addressing the students and faculty members, Principal Prof. Dr. Preetpal Kour emphasized the significance of values that shape human character and define our humanity. She noted that respect for elders, love for family, and gratitude toward those who raised us are among the key pillars of ethical living. She added that grandparents carry traditions, stories, and values that help younger generations understand their roots and heritage. The event was successfully coordinated by Prof. Luksha Dubgotra, NSS Programme Officer, along with committee members of the NSS, ensuring active participation and meaningful engagement throughout the session. NOTICE  I, Subhaga Sharma, GDC Gk Anil Sharma and GDC Sunita Devi, R.S. Jamna, have stated that my father's name has wrongly been written as Anil Sharma (Sharma) (wrong) instead of Anil Sharma (Jainast) and mother name has also wrongly been written as Roshni Sharma (wrong) instead of Sonia Devi (correct). In my 10th Class pass certificate bearing Roll No. 102118255, Session 2020-2021. No I am applying for the correction of the same. Objections if any may be conveyed to Principal of the concerned School/GIC/Jamuna/Jam. Date 30/09/2025. Jamna within 7 days from the publication of this notice.

			members, worthy Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour emphasized the importance of values that shape our character and define our humanity. Among those values, respect for elders, love for family, and gratitude toward those who raised us, stand out as pillars of ethical living. Grandparents carry the traditions, stories, and values that help us understand who we are and where we come from.
--	--	--	--

25	29.09.2025	GDC R.S. PURA SPREADS AWARENESS ON ILL EFFECTS OF DRUGS THROUGH WALL PAINTING	In a creative effort to combat the rising menace of Drug Abuse, Drug De-addiction Committee and NSS unit of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura organized a Wall Painting aimed at spreading awareness about the ill effects of drugs. The initiative was part of the college's ongoing commitment to promoting social responsibility and healthy lifestyles among students and the wider community. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, who used their artistic talents to depict powerful messages against drug abuse. The college walls came alive with vibrant colors and thought-provoking visuals, capturing the attention of students, staff, and passersby. Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, applauded the initiative, stating, "Art is a powerful medium to express strong messages. Through this competition, our students have taken a stand against a critical issue affecting youth today. We are proud of their efforts and hope these visuals inspire positive change." The event was organized under the guidance of Convener Drug De-addiction Committee Prof. Neelam Kumar and NSS PO Prof Lukesha Dubgotra with support from faculty members viz. Dr. Akriti Parihar, Dr. Sunil Kumar Mangoch and Prof Rajinder Singh.
----	------------	--	--

GDC R S Pura spreads awareness on ill effects of drugs through wall painting

Students, staff posing photograph

EARLY TIMES REPORT

R S PURA, Sept 29: In a creative effort to combat the rising menace of Drug Abuse, Drug De-addiction Committee and NSS unit of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura organized a Wall Painting aimed at spreading awareness about the ill effects of drugs.

The initiative was part of the college's ongoing commitment to promoting social responsibility and healthy lifestyles among students and the wider community. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, who used their artistic talents to depict powerful messages against drug abuse.

The college walls came alive with vibrant colors and thought-provoking visuals, capturing the attention of students, staff, and passersby.

Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, applauded the initiative, stating, "Art is a powerful medium to express strong messages. Through this competition, our students have taken a stand against a critical issue affecting youth today. We are proud of their efforts and hope these visuals inspire positive change."

The event was organized under the guidance of Convener Drug De-addiction Committee Prof. Neelam Kumar and NSS PO Prof Lukesha Dubgotra with support from faculty members viz. Dr. Akriti Parihar, Dr. Sunil Kumar Mangoch and Prof Rajinder Singh.

26	29.09.2025	GOVT. DEGREE COLLEGE R.S ORGANISED AN INNOVATION BOOTCAMP	IIC and NSS Unit of Govt. Degree College R.S. Pura in collaboration with IIM Jammu organised an Innovation Bootcamp on 29 September 2025. The aim of the programme is to inspire and equip students with the skills, resources and mindset needed to become future business leaders and innovators. The programme includes one day camp led by expert from IIM Mr. Kannav Padha, Manager IIM, who delivered his lecture on how to start startups successfully in your local area and how IIM Jammu is going to support students idea for startup incubation offering mentorship, seed funding opportunities, and networking with investors, to encourage innovative ideas etc. Speaking about the initiative Principal of the College Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour said that entrepreneurship is not just about starting business-It's about developing a mindset to innovate, take risks and create impact. Among others the prominent speaker were Druvi Sharma Dy. Manager IIM Jammu and local entrepreneurs from Jammu Mr. Raman Singh founder Blessing Pads and Mr. Vikram Sharma, founder VB Industries. They also share their experiences with the students. Through this programme, we aim to empower our students to become job creators rather than job seekers. The programme is open to students across all disciplines, ensuring inclusivity and cross –disciplinary collaboration.
----	------------	---	--

GDC RS Pura organises innovation bootcamp
JAMMU, Sep 29.
 IIC and NSS Unit of Govt. Degree College R.S. Pura in collaboration with IIM Jammu organised an Innovation Bootcamp on 29 September 2025. The aim of the programme is to inspire and equip students with the skills, resources and mindset needed to become future business leaders and innovators. The programme includes one day camp led by expert from IIM Mr. Kannav Padha, Manager IIM, who delivered his lecture on how to start startups successfully in your local area and how IIM Jammu is going to support students idea for startup incubation offering mentorship, seed funding opportunities, and networking with investors, to encourage innovative ideas etc. Speaking about the initiative Principal of the College Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour said that entrepreneurship is not just about starting business-It's about developing a mindset to innovate, take risks and create impact. Among others the prominent speaker were Druvi Sharma Dy. Manager IIM Jammu and local entrepreneurs from Jammu Mr. Raman Singh founder Blessing Pads and Mr. Vikram Sharma, founder VB Industries. They also share their experiences with the students. Through this programme, we aim to empower our students to become job creators rather than job seekers. The programme is open to students across all disciplines, ensuring inclusivity and cross –disciplinary collaboration. The programme was attended by the faculty members of the college viz. Dr. Rajender Kumar Sharma (HOD Botany), Dr. Annu Shrivastava (HOD Physics), Dr. Jagjit Kaur (HOD Mathematics), Prof. Anja, Dr. Virendra Anand, (HOD Political Science) Dr. Renu Sharma, Dr. Har Singh and Dr. Katar Lata. The programme ended with the votes of thanks delivered by Dr. Neeti Chhabra (Coordinator IIC).

GDC R.S Pura organises innovation Boot Camp

Top News Report

#S PURA, Sep 29: IIC and NSS Unit of Govt. Degree College R.S. Pura in collaboration with IIM Jammu organised an Innovation Boot Camp on Monday. The aim of the programme is to inspire and equip students with the skills, resources and mindset needed to become future business leaders and innovators. The programme includes one day camp led by expert from IIM Kannav Padha, Manager IIM, who delivered his lecture on how to start startups successfully in your local area and how IIM Jammu is going to support students idea for startup incubation offering mentorship, seed funding opportunities, and networking with investors, to encourage innovative ideas etc. Speaking about the initiative Principal of the College Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour said that entrepreneurship is not just about starting business-It's about developing a mindset to innovate, take risks and create impact. Among others the prominent speaker were Druvi Sharma Dy. Manager IIM Jammu and local entrepreneurs from Jammu Raman Singh founder Blessing Pads and Vikram Sharma, founder VB Industries.

27	30.09.2025	GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE R.S. PURA ORGANISES AN EXTENSION LECTURE ON “PARTICIPATORY AND INCLUSIVE GOVERNANCE”	As a part of series of events to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti, Department of Political Science Government Degree College R.S. Pura successfully conducted an enlightening extension lecture on “Participatory and inclusive governance” under the patronage of worthy Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour. The lecture was delivered by Prof. Vijeta Anand, aimed at fostering awareness and dialogue on democratic governance in the
----	------------	--	--

			21st century. In a thought-provoking address, the speaker highlighted the importance of citizen engagement, inclusive policy-making, decentralization, and the role of marginalized communities in shaping public decisions. The session witnessed active participation from students and faculty who engaged in a Q&amp;A session, reflecting the growing curiosity and concern among youth regarding democratic practices, social equity, and institutional accountability. Principal Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, in the concluding remarks, appreciated the initiative and encouraged students to take active interest in civic life and public affairs. "Events like these open up critical perspectives and help build responsible future leaders," said the Principal. The event was part of the college's ongoing efforts to promote academic excellence and civic engagement among students
28	30.09.2025	NCC UNIT OF GOVT DEGREE COLLEGE, R.S. PURA CONDUCTS CLEANLINESS DRIVE UNDER "SWACHHTA HI SEWA CAMPAIGN – 2025"	The NCC Unit of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura, actively participated in the Swachhta Hi Sewa Campaign – 2025 by organizing a cleanliness drive on the theme "Ek Din, Ek Ghanta, Ek Saath". The campaign, aimed at promoting cleanliness and environmental awareness, witnessed enthusiastic participation from NCC cadets, faculty members, and students. The event emphasized the importance of dedicating at least one hour in a day to clean one's surroundings, fostering a collective sense of responsibility towards hygiene and sustainability. NCC Cadets took part in cleaning various areas in and around the college premises, spreading the message of cleanliness as a civic duty and social responsibility. Placards, slogans, and awareness messages were used to inspire others to join the cause and contribute towards a cleaner India. The Principal of College Prof.(Dr.) Preetpal Kour, appreciated the efforts of the NCC Unit and encouraged the students to continue being

			ambassadors of change in society. She further added that as students, you play a very important role in this movement. You are the future of India and your habits, your discipline and your awareness will shape our society. Keeping your school, your homes, and your neighborhoods clean is not a small task – it is a big step towards a better future. The event concluded with a pledge taken by all participants to uphold the values of cleanliness and encourage others to do the same. The whole event was coordinated by Prof. Sanjeev Upadhyay, CTO NCC Boys.
--	--	--	---	--

Sd/-
PRINCIPAL