1.	03.02.2025	GOVT. DEGREE COLLEGE RS PURA ORGANIZES CELEBRATES WORLD WETLANDS DAY AT GHARANA WETLAND	The Department of Environmental Sciences and Eco-club of Government Degree College, R.S. Pura under the aegis of IQAC successfully organized an educational trip to the renowned Gharana Wetland on occasion of the world wetlands day under the patronage of Prof. (Dr.) Preetpal Kour, Principal of GDC R.S. Pura. Speaking on the occasion, she emphasized the need for environmental stewardship and the role of youth in preserving natural habitats. Gharana wetland is a significant ecological site known for its rich biodiversity and migratory bird population. The trip aimed to provide students with firsthand exposure to wetland ecosystems and raise awareness about the importance of environmental conservation. The college students, accompanied by faculty members visited the wetland to observe its diverse flora and fauna. The trip was designed to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical experience, enabling students to understand ecological dynamics, habitat conservation, and the challenges faced by wetlands. During the visit, students had the opportunity to witness various migratory birds, including bar-headed geese, northern pintails, and black-winged stilts, which travel thousands of miles to seek refuge in the wetland. Dr. Sudesh Kumar, an expert in birds provided insightful discussions on the significance of wetlands in maintaining ecological balance, water purification, and supporting local livelihoods. The trip concluded with an interactive session where students shared their observations and discussed strategies for conservation and sustainable practices. The participants expressed their gratitude to the college administration for organizing such an enriching experience. The trip was organized by the faculty of environmental sciences, Prof.

			Priya Darshini Sharma, Dr. Sudesh Kumar, Dr. Akriti Parihar and Eco-club of the college. The faculty members Dr. Raj Kumari, Prof. Geetika Goswami and Prof. Rajinder Singh accompanied the students.
